Vladimir Grigorievich KAPUSTIN, Russian, born on February 24, 1908, at Blagoveschensk, Amur Region, Siberia. According to his own statement, he left Russia for Manchuria in 1918 together with his parents and subsequently proceeded to Shanghai via Japan arriving in this city in 1919. Here he attended the Thomas Hanbury School from 1919 to 1926, after which he went to Harbin to join parents. For the following 13 years he resided for various periods in different towns in China including Harbin (1926-1929), Tientsin (1929 - 1931 and 1933 - 1939) and Dairen (1931 - 1933) occasionally visiting Shanghai and Hongkong. During this period he was engaged in commercial activities in connection with the firm G.Kapustin & Co., owned by his father. He arrived in Shanghai from Tientsin in May, 1939, and at present is a partner in the United Transporters of Shanghai, 113 Hsiuning Road, representing his father's interests in this business.

He holds passport No 1561 issued on 23-6-38 by the Police Bureau of Greater Tientsin and is registered with the Russian Emigrants Committee in Shanghai. At present he resides at the Navy Y.M.C.A., 430 Szechuen Road, Room 527, while his parents and two brothers (Vit. G. Kapustin and E.G. Kapustin) reside at 34 Route de Say Koong.

While in Shanghai he did not come to notice of the Municipal Police in connection with any activities of an undesirable character.
